

SLP Services for Adults with Head and Neck Cancer: Improving Patient Reported Outcomes

Following SLP services, 80% of individuals with head and neck cancer felt like their swallowing improved, and 100% felt that they had the swallowing skills needed to participate in everyday activities.

NOMS

ASHA's National Outcomes
Measurement System

Your Data at Work

American Speech-Language-Hearing Association. (2024). <https://www.asha.org/NOMS>